MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, AF/1/A

SUBJECT: Algerian Interest in Police Training Program in Germany.

REFERENCES: A. PROB-2790, 10 August 1962
B. DIR-29476, 13 August 1962

1. For your information we quote verbatim the pertinent portion of the CARAVEL Progress Report for June-October 1962 (HQA-38140) on the subject of this memorandum:

"Algerian Interest in CARAVEL: The approach to CARAVEL by an agent, Francois GENOUD, of the Algerian government agent (see PROB-2790) has not led to any concrete results, largely because of the unsettled conditions in Algeria. The original approach was for CARAVEL to help set up training for future leading police officials. A follow up meeting in Paris did not materialize because of the fighting in Algiers, but GENOUD has appealed to CARAVEL to intercede on behalf of Algeria with the German Red Cross. GENOUD remains in contact with CARAVEL by phone and it is likely that the police training question will be reopened. We will watch developments of possible operational interest to KUBARK."

2. We will keep you informed as reporting on this subject is received from the field.
